

Where to Retire

The Authority on Retirement Relocation

Dothan Featured in Where to Retire Magazine

Houston, TX (April 9, 2019) – Dothan, AL, has been selected as a top retirement destination by Where to Retire, the only magazine in America geared toward helping people with retirement relocation decisions. Dothan is profiled in a feature titled “8 Veteran-Friendly Cities” in the May/June 2019 issue, available nationwide now.

Where to Retire Editor Annette Fuller said these eight cities are attractive to military personnel and their families. “They go the extra mile to make retired veterans feel at home,” Fuller said. “In addition to military installations, the cities boast numerous amenities that are attractive to all retirees, including civilians. Dothan has a rich military history and plentiful outdoor options. Plus, Alabama doesn’t tax military retirement pay.”

Retirement Relocation Trends

According to the latest data from the U.S. Census Bureau, more than 700,000 Americans relocate to new towns in retirement each year. Generally, these relocating retirees are healthier, better educated and more affluent than those who choose to not relocate, and they bring significant economic benefits to their new states and hometowns.

Florida continues to reign as the No. 1 destination for retirement relocation, followed by Arizona, South Carolina and North Carolina. The most popular region is the Southeast, claiming eight of the 17 states showing increases in total net retiree migration. This research and the latest census data is detailed in Where to Retire’s four-part series on retirement relocation. Order these back issues online.
